

Do you want to know when people are lying to you?

“Reading Body Language In Business”

Presented by Professional Speaker

David Ferrier

David has been a jack of all trades, from Jackaroo to State Manager of Roof Seal at the age of 25! As a professional speaker of just 39 years of age, and a sales trainer over 9 years, he offers unique insight in how to succeed as a sales person. And or small business owner in a demanding and competitive market place. Be prepared to be inspired and motivated to use skills that will help you achieve the things you want in your life!

This inspirational, motivational and humours seminar, with handouts, will systematically and dynamically address:

- How to concisely understand when someone is lying to you, or telling the truth!
- How to easily read body language to build rapport and close business sales
- How to formulate “The Top 1% Planned Presentation”, utilising visual aids to maximize your business conversions

Take an exciting journey and become involved in a talk that will make a positive impact in the way you live your life and do business!

Book now to secure your seat using the attached registration form as this workshop will book out fast!

in association with

- Date: Tuesday 3rd February
- Time: 7:15 for 7:30am Start till 9:00am
- Venue: Marion Hotel
Marion Road, Mitchell Park
- Cost (inc GST): $00.00 Members $00.00 Visitors
includes delicious breakfast and refreshments
- RSVP: Thursday 29th January
using attached registration form